PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Parishioners,

We congratulate the recently-graduated Visitation School Class of 2024! We hope your journey through Visitation School has given you a strong foundation in faith, knowledge and character as you move on to high school. We are proud of you and continue to offer you our support, encouragement and prayers in the years to come.

The school year ends this coming week, and we give thanks for the dedication of our faculty and staff, along with so many generous, hard-working volunteers. The year has had its share of blessings and challenges, and the incredible support of Visitation Parish has sustained the ministry of Catholic education throughout. We give special thanks and commendation to Mary Kallman for her hard work and leadership of Visitation School. The role of Principal carries abundant challenges and can often be a thankless job. So THANK YOU, MARY, for all the gifts, dedication and faith you have brought to this ministry. Blessings on your future endeavors in Catholic education!

My trip to Italy was the trip of a lifetime! Lake Como, Milan, Turin, Levanto and Cinque Terre are some of my new favorite places on earth, especially Lake Como and its surrounding towns. What beautiful places and what wonderful memories I have. I visited lots of amazing churches, enjoyed incredible food and drink, savored the beauty and culture of Italy and enjoyed some true quality time with my family.

Peace - Fr. Greg

VIS ABUZZ WITH ACTIVITY

As the school year draws to a close, Visitation has been abuzz with activities. From the Art and Music Exhibit, to the heartwarming School Wide Kindness Concert inspired by the Rachel's Challenge initiative, to our annual Bike to school Day. We also celebrated the symbolic passing of the flame from our graduating 8th grade class to the rising 7th grade class, symbolizing the transition of leadership.

Additionally, we rounded out the year with two favorite fundraisers: the Annual Flower Sale blossomed with success, big thanks to Laura Gromosky and Morgan Welsh who chaired. And the VAC golf tournament, chaired by Emily Gretzinger, brought parent-teams together for day of fun on the green.

Amidst the hustle and bustle, we extend our heartfelt gratitude to the dedicated teachers, supportive faculty, and vibrant community members who collectively make Visitation an extraordinary place to learn and grow.

RACIAL JUSTICE

VIS RACIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE UPDATE:

Entering its fourth year of existence, the Visitation Racial Justice Committee continues to seek ways to raise awareness and encourage participation in events and activities that promote diversity and racial inclusion. Monthly meetings occur via Zoom or participating in an RJC suggested attendance at a local event or activity that celebrates racial diversity.

To that end, Kristin Kratofil and Peg Ekerdt recently convened a book discussion of Kingdom Quarterback (Dent and Dodd). Braving the evening's threat of a tornado, the group discussed the books' protagonists and antagonists—inspirations and disappointments. They explored what they learned about the history of Kansas City, the history of the Kansas City Chiefs (too much football detail for some) as they also discussed the book's themes of housing and race.

Next week's bulletin will provide an update to the parish on the May 15 monthly RJC meeting and group field trip to the Emmett Till memorial exhibit at KU's Spencer Museum. As always, we appreciate your attention, support and suggestions. If you would like to know more about the committee or become a member, please contact Linda Hughes (lhcteach20@gmail.com) or Peg Ekerdt (peggyekerdt@gmail.com)

LAUDATO SI WEEK – MAY 19-26

WHAT IS “LAUDATO SI’ WEEK”?

Catholics around the globe set aside a week, May 19 to 26, every year as Laudato Si’ week to celebrate and call attention to the on-going importance of Pope Francis’ letter “Laudato Si” published May 24, 2015. By it, the Pope appealed to all the peoples of the world to create greater “Care for Our Common Home”, the Earth.

The 2024 theme is “Seeds of Hope”, inspired by the Season of Creation (September 1 to October 4, 2024) symbol, “the first fruits of hope” and is accompanied by a guiding quote from Laudate Deum (Pope’s follow up letter of October 4, 2023, a call to redouble efforts.) “There are no lasting changes without cultural changes ... and there are no cultural changes without personal changes.”

The practical insight of both letters is that the technical knowledge needed to rescue the earth needs to be accompanied by personal change. The Laudato Si’ Movement has put out a Celebration Guide with practical suggestions to achieve personal change, such as developing a deeper respect for the wonders of creation, using more renewable energy, modifying mealtime habits, reducing waste, modifying our transportation, educating one’s self on fossil fuel issues, reducing one’s carbon footprint, and meditation on the spirituality of integral ecology. These actions can be read and done anytime.

Information above draws heavily on the Laudato Si’ organizational website: <https://laudatosiweek.org>.

The Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph is committed to combatting sexual abuse in the Church. If you are a victim of sexual abuse, or if you observe or suspect sexual abuse: 1. Call the Missouri Child Abuse Hotline at 1-800-392-3738 (if the victim is currently under the age of ), and 2. Contact your local law enforcement agency or call 911, and 3. After reporting to these civil and law enforcement authorities, report suspected sexual abuse of a minor or vulnerable adult to the Ombudsman, Joe Crayon, at 816-812-2500 or crayon@ombudsmankcsj.org if the abuse involves a priest, deacon, employee or volunteer of the Diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph. The Diocese has a sincere commitment to providing care and healing resources to victims of sexual abuse and their families. Please contact Whitney True-Francis, Victim Assistance Coordinator, at 816-392-0011 or true.francis@diocesekcsj.org for more information.
